Meal for 8

See www.igroza.co.za for more.

Ingredients

- 16 chicken wings, seasoned with salt & pepper
- 250 ml Peri- Peri basting sauce
- 2 litres water
- 8 ml salt
- 5 ml Turmeric
- 375 ml Rice

Method

- Place the chicken wings in a lightly oiled oven roasting dish. Brush with peri peri basting sauce and roast for about 40 minutes or until cooked. Baste about every 5-10 minutes throughout the roasting proses.
- In the meantime cook the yellow rice. Bring water to the boil and stir in the salt and turmeric. Add the rice.
- Boil the rice for 25 minutes or until cooked and liquid is absorbed. Serve with hot chicken wings

Hint:

How to get crispy chicken skin:
Season the chicken skin with salt and grill skin-side up over moderately-low heat in the oven until the fat has rendered and the skin is nice and crisp. Keep the heat low—if it gets too high, the fat will sear and not cook slowly and melt away.

Infusing the flavour:
When basting the chicken before cooking lift the skin and get as much of the basting under the skin as possible as well as on top of the skin so that the flavour gets absorbed into the chicken meat while it cooks.

How to avoid the bath time blues

1. Start with a quick sponge bath for newborns. This will let you avoid submerging the umbilical cord stump, which needs to stay dry.
2. Always bath your baby in a warm, draft-free room.
3. Place a warm, wet washcloth over your baby's stomach during her bath to help prevent her from getting cold.
4. Use a soft washcloth or sponge to clean her, then gently pat her dry.

Tips for safe nappy changing

1. Never leave your baby unattended during a nappy change.
2. Get everything ready before you start.
3. Keep nappy sacks out of your baby's reach as baby's can suffocate on nappy sacks.
4. Check your changing area; keep dirty nappies etc. out of your baby's reach.
5. Avoid spreading germs.
6. Keep baby from falling by always keeping one hand on baby if you're changing your baby on a high surface.
